

Date: October 15, 1971
Time: 10:08 am - 10:37 am
Location: Oval Office

The President met with John B. Connally, Henry A. Kissinger, and Robert S. McNamara ^{Conv. No. 593-9 (cont.)}
[The White House photographer was present at the beginning of the meeting]

Salutations

US foreign relations

- Kissinger
 - Connally
- National Security Council [NSC] meetings
- Economic policy
 - Public concern
 - Financial contributions
 - US interests
 - Salvadore Allende Gossens
 - US role
 - Vietnam
- Connally
 - McNamara
 - Republican party
- Barry M. Goldwater
- Kissinger
- Multinational financial institutions
 - World bank
 - International Monetary Fund [IMF]
 - Inter-American Development Bank [IADB]
- European Economic Community [EEC]
- International economics
 - US
 - Trade
- IADB
 - Chile
- The President's conversation with Kissinger and Connally
 - American business interests
 - Raw materials
 - Protection
 - Technology
- World bank

McNamara

- Career status
- Responsibilities

World economic situation

- McNamara's role

- US interests
 - Japan
 - Economic outlook
 - Raw materials
 - France
 - Algeria
 - Expropriation
 - Chile
 - France support for US actions
 - Expropriation
 - Algeria
 - El Paso Natural Gas Corporation
 - Guyana
 - Canada
 - US-Canada cooperation
 - Burnham
 - Status in World Bank
 - Anaconda Steel Corporation
 - Kennecot Steel Corporation
 - Latin America
 - France
 - Algeria
 - Japan
 - Germany
 - France
 - US loans
 - Peru
 - Algeria
 - Chile
- Georges J.R. Pompidou
 - Jacques Chabian-Delmas
 - Maurice Schumann
 - Algerians
 - World Bank loan
- World affairs
 - Latin America
 - Japan
 - Jamaica
 - Bauxite
- McNamara's efforts
- International insurance plan
 - Japan
 - US
 - France
 - Overseas Private Investment Corporation [OPIC]
 - Chile
 - Anaconda Steel Corporation
 - Kennecot Steel Corporation
 - France
 - US position

- Japan, France, Britain, Germany
- World Bank
 - McNamara's efforts
- Connally's previous conversation with Japan
- William P. Rogers

International economic interrelationships

- Japanese
- Mauritania
 - Raw materials
 - Indonesia
 - Agency for International Development [AID] program
- IADB
- Asian Development Bank
- Export-Import [Ex-Im] bank

US foreign policy

- International expropriation
 - US policy
 - Consultation with foreign nations
 - Connally
 - McNamara
 - Arthur F. Burns
- Coordination of US efforts
 - World bank
 - Latin America
 - McNamara
 - Algeria
 - World bank
 - Export-Import bank
 - IADB
 - Peru
 - Expropriation
 - The President's executive order
 - US policy on expropriation
 - Connally
 - Secretary of the Treasury
 - Algeria
 - Chile
 - Secretary of the treasury
 - Secretary of State
 - Chilean example
 - International monetary situation
 - NSC
 - The President's first press conference
 - New York Times*
 - Union of Soviet Socialist Republics [USSR]
 - Linkage
 - Japanese
 - Japan

- Negotiating strategy
 - Linkage
 - Okinawa
 - Textiles
- Kissinger
- Linkage
 - USSR
 - The President's position
 - USSR
 - Berlin
 - Middle East
 - Trade
 - Time* magazine
 - Maurice H. Stans
 - Berlin
 - Kama River project
 - US policy
 - East-West trade
 - Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty [SALT]
 - Trade
 - Berlin
 - Trade
 - Loans

World Bank

- Standards
- Loans

Us foreign policy

- Japan
- Europe
- Chinese
- Soviets
- Loan policy
- Kissinger
- McNamara
 - World Bank
 - Pakistan
 - Connally
- Economic Decisions
 - Peru
 - International Telephone and Telegraph [ITT]Company
 - US firms
 - Japanese firms
- Kissinger

Alexander P. Butterfield entered at 10:37 am.

The President's schedule

Farewells

McNamara, et al. left at 10:37 am.